Challenging Boundaries
The need for social work in a globalized world

October 24 | 13:15 - 16:00 | Main Entry, Sprängkullsgatan 19

It’s the 20-year anniversary of our international Master’s Programme in Social Work and Human Rights. Come celebrate with us!

Program

Undocumented migrants health and the right to health
Lena Andersson, Department of Social Work, Gothenburg

How social workers can utilize the human rights law
Eyassu Gayim, School of Global Studies, Gothenburg

Social work as a human rights profession
Nivedita Prasad, Alice Salomon Hochschule, Berlin

International social work and social development – learning for a globalised world
Roma Thomas, University of Bedfordshire, UK

Also: alumni testimonials, networking and finger foods!

Welcome! (No registration - just show up!)