

WORLD SOCIAL WORK DAY 2017

When: 21th of March 2017 between 13.15 and 16.00

Where: Dragonen, Sprängkullsgatan 19

The third Tuesday in March every year World Social Work Day is celebrated all over the world. The theme for 2017 is "Promoting Community and Environmental Sustainability". During the afternoon we will hear about global social work. We will also take part of students' international experiences. There will also be information on what possibilities there are to study, do field practice or write the thesis abroad.

13.15 Introduction Ronny Tikkanen, International Coordinator

13.30 Think globally, act locally– Presentation by "On the Margins" a group of students of the MSWHR (International Master in Social Work and Human Rights): Annemarie Ammer, Linnea Roslund Gustavsson, Saana Boahen and John Flynn.

14.00 Flashlights: Study abroad – experiences and possibilities

14.30 Break

15.00 Flashlights: Visiting social work students' experiences of Sweden

15.30 Information in Swedish: vilka möjligheter finns det för dig att läsa kurser, göra VFU och skriva uppsats utomlands?